The Board MAKES NO RECOMMENDATION with respect to the CMG tender offer

December 21, 2022

Dear Stockholder:

I am writing to you on behalf of the board of directors (the “Board”) of American Healthcare REIT, Inc. (“AHR”) to notify you about an unsolicited third-party mini-tender offer (the “CMG Offer”) being made for your shares of AHR common stock by CMG Partners, LLC and its affiliates, CMG Income Fund II, LLC, CMG Liquidity Fund, LLC, and Blue River Capital, LLC (collectively, “CMG”), in what we believe is an opportunistic attempt to purchase your shares. CMG is offering to purchase up to an aggregate of 100,000 shares of AHR’s Class T and Class I common stock at a low price of $20.00 per share (the “Shares”), WHICH IS EQUIVALENT TO $5.00 PER SHARE BEFORE AHR’S ONE-FOR-FOUR REVERSE STOCK SPLIT IN NOVEMBER 2022. This is not an offer from AHR.

AHR is required by applicable Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) rules and regulations to inform you of its position, if any, with respect to the CMG Offer. In evaluating the CMG Offer, the Board considered, among other things, the following factors:

- (i) The CMG Offer price of $20.00 per share (which is equivalent to $5.00 per share before the one-for-four reverse stock split) is approximately 46% lower than the AHR Board’s most recent estimated net asset value (“NAV”) of Class T and Class I common stock of $37.16 per share as of December 31, 2021. This NAV was determined by the Board with the assistance of an independent third-party valuation firm (and adjusted for the recent one-for-four reverse stock split).<sup>1</sup>
- (ii) AHR filed a registration statement on Form S-11 with the SEC relating to potential plans to issue shares of its common stock in an underwritten public offering, which would be accompanied by a listing of those shares of common stock on the New York Stock Exchange. However, AHR can make no assurances as to when, or if, AHR will commence such public offering or whether the contemplated public offering will be successful or that any future trading or other liquidity event will allow you to sell your shares at a price in excess of the CMG Offer price. In addition, it is currently contemplated that the Class T and Class I common stock outstanding prior to the contemplated public offering will not automatically convert into shares of listed common stock until six months after the listing of AHR’s common stock in connection with the contemplated public offering.
- (iii) While the Board believes that the CMG Offer represents an opportunistic attempt by CMG to purchase the Shares and make a profit, the Board is aware that the AHR share repurchase plan was suspended on November 14, 2022 and stockholders may need near-term liquidity in light of the current volatile financial markets and lack of certainty regarding the timing of any potential AHR public offering or other liquidity event.

After carefully evaluating the CMG Offer and consulting with AHR’s management and such advisors as deemed appropriate by the Board, the Board REMAINS NEUTRAL and makes NO RECOMMENDATION on whether any AHR stockholder should accept or decline the CMG Offer for their shares.

Please note that stockholders who tender their shares will lose their right to receive any future distributions that are paid after the conclusion of the CMG Offer. AHR currently pays distributions at an annualized rate of $1.60 per share. While there are no guarantees of future distributions or a liquidity event and there can be no certainty regarding the long-term value of AHR’s common stock because the value is dependent on a number of factors, stockholders who tender their shares pursuant to the CMG Offer would give up their rights to any future distributions after the conclusion of the CMG Offer as well as their rights to receive any proceeds from any AHR liquidity event.

As stated by CMG, the CMG Offer is being made “for investment purposes and with the intention of making a profit from the ownership of the Shares.” CMG determined the CMG Offer price pursuant to its own analysis and states that [they] “have not made an independent appraisal of the Shares or [AHR’s] properties and are not qualified to appraise real estate.” Hence, CMG acknowledges that its offer price was established based on CMG’s own analysis and objectives without consideration of your financial objectives.

We urge you to consult your financial advisor and exercise caution with respect to this and other mini-tender offers. The SEC has cautioned investors about these kinds of offers in an investor alert, as they are often made in an attempt to profit at investors’ expense. The SEC noted that these offers “have been increasingly used to catch investors off guard,” and cautioned that investors need to scrutinize these types of offers carefully. To read more about the risks of “mini-tender” offers, please review the alert at www.sec.gov/investor/pubs/minitend.htm.

SEC rules permit third parties, such as CMG, to distribute unsolicited mini-tender offers to stockholders of public companies. However, in order to maintain the confidentiality of our stockholders, AHR has only provided stockholder mailing information needed to distribute the CMG Offer materials to a third-party financial printer that is unaffiliated with CMG. Therefore, CMG will not have access to any additional stockholder information unless the stockholder agrees to accept the tender offer by CMG. None of AHR’s directors or executive officers intends to tender any shares in the CMG Offer.

The Board understands that you must make your own independent decision whether to tender or refrain from tendering your shares. We strongly urge you to carefully consider all aspects of the CMG Offer in light of your own circumstances, including (i) your investment objectives, (ii) your financial circumstances, including your tolerance for risk and need for immediate liquidity that cannot be satisfied by other means, (iii) other financial opportunities available to you, (iv) your own tax position and tax consequences, and (v) other factors you determine are relevant to your decision. You should carefully review all of the CMG Offer documents sent to you by CMG, as well as AHR’s publicly available annual, quarterly and other reports filed with the SEC at www.sec.gov, and consult with your own financial, tax and other advisors in evaluating the CMG Offer before deciding whether to tender your shares.

PLEASE CONSULT WITH YOUR FINANCIAL ADVISOR AND TAX ADVISOR ABOUT THE IMPACT OF A SALE ON YOUR OWN PARTICULAR SITUATION.

Should you have any questions or need further information about your options, please feel free to contact your financial advisor or AHR Investor Services at 844-460-9414.

Sincerely,

Danny Prosky
Chief Executive Officer, President and Director
